You didn't do an appropriate copy and paste of Morty's names. Too much sensitive information was included on the spreadsheet you sent to me that I then shared. Please fix it immediately. In addition to team leads, Angela and Barb also received the information.

Thank you.

Chris

Subject: Waitlist 2017, Round I.xlsx

Attached you'll find the first round of waitlist names to call in the next couple of days (if you're not here, ask a buddy). As in years past, we contact the student and need a verbal (or email) commitment before putting them through as an official admit. Once you receive a yea or nay, please let Lois know. Aaron shared the process for admitting in a previous email. You can let Barb or Lee know if they no longer want to be considered and should be removed from the active list.

This is just the first round. A group of Pell applicants will be coming tomorrow or Monday. There's likely to be a final round III later next week.

Chris
